

Contents

Introduction	ix
HISTORY AND MEMORY
A History of the Humanities Department (1951-1982) Josefa T. Lava	3
From "The History of the Department of Art Studies Highlights (1985-2000)" Frances F. Morillo	17
Commemorating the Oblation Aurora Roxas-Lim	24
Postmodernism in Japan Alice G. Guillermo	27
The Armory Show and Beyond: Exploring the Dynamics of Philippine and American Modernism Alden Q. Lauzon	36
Reading/Writing the AAP: The challenge of producing contemporary art history Reuben Ramas Cañete	43
The Image of the Lady of Japan : A Study on the Flow of Material Culture between the Philippines and Japan Norma A. Respicio	54

Two Paintings: Art and History Patrick D. Flores	66
FORM AND FEELING
Three Issues in the Production of Recorded Music Robin Daniel Z. Rivera	99
Jibber-Jabber: The Problem of Unintelligibility as Art Roberto G. Paulino	110
The Ontological Status of the Non-Figurative, the Found Object and the Conceptual in Art Helen Yu-Rivera	116
NATIONALISM
Cultural Identity and Development Felipe M. De Leon Jr.	127
Lost in Translation: The Case of Marcelo Adonay, Musician Elena Rivera Mirano	142
The Appropriation of Local Culture in Museum Practices: Problems and Possibilities for Philippine Communities Cecilia S. de la Paz	152
POWER
On this Site Will Rise: Nation-Building and Marcosian Architectures Gerard Rey A. Lico	171
PERFORMATIVE ARTWORLD-ING and the Practice of Power: the CCP and Indigenism Clod Marlan Krister V. Yambao	185
ETHNICITY
Wikang Biswal sa Kanluraning Bisayas: Pagpapahayag ng Sarili at Lugar Brenda V. Fajardo	201

Sulu Maritime Visual Arts: Spaces and Environmental Concerns Abraham P. Sakili	213
--	-----

GENDER AND SEXUALITY

Urban Decay, Redemption and the Feminized City: Cinematic Representations of Revive Manila's Renovated Parks Tessa Maria Guazon	227
The Perils of Posing: From Theory to Practice and Back Sofia G. Guillermo	238
The Lesbian Imaginaire: Sex, Sexuality, and Desire in Juan Luna's Paintings at the Turn of the Century Roselle Pineda	247
What is Women's Art, or is there such a thing? Flaudette May V. Datuin	263
Balaybay : Addressing the Volatile Eileen Legaspi-Ramirez	272
Dancing and Other Necessities: Women Seizing Spaces for an Empowering Dance Aesthetic Rina Angela P. Corpus	278

ABOUT THE AUTHORS	295
-------------------	-----

INDEX	303
-------	-----